Hancock school district apparently $41,000 in red

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.
The Hancock County School District 1982-83 budget is apparently some $41,000 in the red.
Terrell Randolph, county superintendent of education, said at a County School Board meeting Tuesday night a "mistake" in budget estimates of ad valorem tax income resulted in the deficit.
He reported the ad valorem tax revenue budget originally listed as $845,288 is actually some $804,000.
"We don't have as much assessed valuation," the superintendent stated.
Randolph's revelation was part of his recommendation not to rebuild the Hancock North Central High School principal's residence which recently burned to the ground.
The residence was owned by the district and located on Cueve-Town Road near the school.
He suggested another nearby district-owned house now utilized by the HNC Junior High principal be provided to the principal.
Randolph said a second house was built when at one time state law required a home be provided for the school agriculture instructor.
But he also reported Donald Hillman, HNC principal, had been planning to build his own home before the fire.
Randolph said at least one residence is needed near the school for "security reasons."
The superintendent reported the district annually pays about $5,000 for electrical and telephone service for the two houses.
Randolph also suggested the board charge rent for the remaining home.

Billie Fay Lyons, a board member, cited the two houses might help when new teachers are unable to find a place to live.
Randolph replied, "Maybe in the future we can build a teacher housing complex."
The superintendent said the district would soon receive insurance reimbursement for the destroyed home, but he did not reveal the amount.
He recommended the money be utilized to help fund either classroom construction or new bus purchases.
"We're financially strapped for money," he stated.
But earlier in the meeting during an explanation of his travel expenses, Randolph reported a Washington, D.C. trip would result in the district receiving $45,000 in federal funds which were previously withheld.
Cievas explained, "We had too much money in our budget."
He said a change in the district's building program now allowed the district to receive the federal funds.
Randolph explained the money is given to the district in lieu of taxes not received from the National Space Technology Laboratories.
"We can spend that money for anything," the superintendent stated.
He said the government provides the funds based on the district's financial needs and the lack of taxes.
Randolph reported the district has not received the federal money in two years and the 1980 December trip to Washington helped insure reinstatement of the financial support.

Jury deliberates in robbery case

By BRENT MACEY
The fate of James Conley, 62, accused of the armed robbery of Virginia Guilbeau Jan. 16, 1982, remained undecided at press time Wednesday as a six-men, six-women jury deliberated following closing arguments by both prosecuting and defense attorneys.
District Attorney Albert Necaise and Assistant District Attorney Scherry LeSieur attempted to prove that Conley "masterminded" a plan to rob "a substantial amount of jewelry" (some $90,000) and money from Guilbeau when Guilbeau returned to her house on Texas Flat Road in Hancock County at approximately 8:30 p.m.
Conley, who testified in his own defense, claimed he was not involved with the robbery and knew nothing about any scheme to steal several rings and a diamond-studded watch.
One of several rings stolen, and the only ring recovered by police after the robbery, was estimated to have a value of $69,500, according to Guilbeau who wore the ring during the trial.
Conley stated he knew Guilbeau and drove her to Carlos Marcello office in New Orleans the day before the robbery to see about helping Guilbeau sell the diamonds.
Both the prosecution and Defense Attorney Aaron Adams agreed that Conley was not present when Guilbeau was struck on the head from behind with a blackjack when she walked from her car to the front door of her house on a cold January evening.
The state alleged that Conley, who was a friend of Guilbeau, met and formulated plans with several other people prior to the robbery.
Two of those people, Robert Stewart and Marilyn Page, 35, who are both charged with armed robbery in connection with the same incident, testified that Conley rode with them the day of the incident and pointed out the Guilbeau house.
Both Page and Stewart said they had never met Guilbeau and did not know where she lived until Conley pointed out the house.
Page testified she waited outside the door of the house that evening and struck Guilbeau from behind when Guilbeau approached the door with a .38 caliber handgun in her hand.

Both Page and Stewart claimed that Conley and James Buchanan, also a friend of Guilbeau, explained how the alarm system functioned inside

De-Ahna tells life story

Exotic dancer opens unique night spot

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.
An exotic dancer and singer who has performed worldwide plans to make her permanent home in Hancock County and recently opened a unique Bay St. Louis nightclub.
De-Ahna, a raven-haired beauty who is a former Miss Philippines and fifth runner-up in a Miss Universe pageant, recently purchased the former Party Time Lounge on South Beach Boulevard which she renamed De-Ahna's Night Gallery.
Workers have completed renovating the building's interior to accommodate a red color scheme and De-Ahna's show.

The interior of the establishment now includes a stage, dance floor, an extensive lighting system and an impressive stereo setup.
De-Ahna says her establishment will primarily appeal to middle-aged and older adults, but she hopes to increase her clientele by offering a diversity of entertainment and later serve oriental cuisine based on her own recipes.
The main attraction will be De-Ahna and three female dancers (De-Ahna's Production Show Girls) performing a variety of dance styles in costumes designed by Hedy Jo Starr of Las Vegas, Nev.

De-Ahna proudly reports she choreographed all her performances as well as additional shows by the girls.
She dubs her act as a "variety production show" similar to Chris Owens' routine at her Bourbon Street club in New Orleans.
For several years De-Ahna was the featured act at a nearby establishment—the 500 Club on Bourbon.

In addition, the statuesque brunette says she has also performed in Las Vegas and California frequently, all 50 states and around the world during her nine-year career as a dancer.
The performer emphasizes she has never worked as a stripper and would never allow that type of entertainment at her night club.
She adds the State Alcohol Beverage Commission has required her to alter some costumes to more "acceptable" standards.
De-Ahna reports her national television appearances include The Tonight, Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows.
She regards Griffin as one of the most professional and cordial talk show hosts.
De-Ahna describes herself a conservative, domestic and devout Catholic.
In fact, she says she was originally attracted to Bay St. Louis in 1975 when she visited the city one day and was impressed by the "peaceful, clean and conservative" environment here.
"I like to drive and one day I found Bay St. Louis. It was the cleanest town I've seen on the Coast," De-Ahna says with a soft but firm Philippine and Spanish accent.
While later purchasing property in Hancock, she became acquainted with Delmar Wilcox of Waveland and Gerald and Joseph Gex of Bay St. Louis who encouraged her to move to this area.
After searching one year for a building to house her nightclub, she decided to purchase Party Time through Aubry McMahon Realty.
Although she was recently asked to again perform at the 500 Club and in Las Vegas, De-Ahna says after working as a performer for several years she is

BROKER'S LICENSE—Mrs. Aubre McMahon, seated left, of Aubre McMahon Real Estate in Bay St. Louis, presents husband Tyson J. McMahon with his new real estate broker's license. McMahon was among nine persons in Mississippi who passed the January broker's examination, according to J. Daniel Schroeder of Jackson, administrator of the Mississippi

Real Estate Commission. Schroeder also reported three other members of the McMahon firm—standing from left, Sidney M. Davis of Bay St. Louis, Linda J. Hennigan of Pass Christian and Howard G. Some of the world's tastiest dishes have come about through the imaginative use of leftovers; in fact, the "second time around" version is often more enjoyable than the first. Many of us relish Chicken Divan, that creamy concoction of sliced chicken over a bed of broccoli; more than slices of chicken. And we like red bean soup or salad from yesterday's red beans and rice dinner—if there's any leftover! And think what a French or Cajun or Chinese cook can do with some leftover rice and bits of fish or fowl or meat, plus bits of vegetables! Left over boiled or mashed potatoes are a gift to inventive cooks—there's so much you can do with them that I always cook more than I need, so as to have a basis for another meal. Left over (I call 'em planned over) mashed potatoes reappear as soup or crunchy coated potato balls or in croquettes or pancakes or fritters, or just reheated, topped with grated cheese and crumbs, and run briefly under the broiler for a crisp topping. And that classic cold soup, vichyssoise, was added to our culinary repertoire when a chef was making hot potato soup out of the leftover mashed potatoes—and let the soup cool. I like it better that way, winter or summer, and so do many others. Here's:

VICHYSOISE
(Vee-chee-swah)

1 small onion, chopped
3 green onions, sliced thin
3 Tbsp. butter or margarine
1 chicken bouillon cube
1 to 2 cups leftover mashed potatoes
Milk
Pepper, salt to taste
Minced parsley
Dash of paprika
Sauté onion and green onion in butter till tender but not brown, about 10 minutes. Add bouillon and cook till dissolved. Blend in potatoes, then add milk (about 1 to 1½ cups per cup of potatoes, or until the consistency you want. (We like it on the thick side). Heat and season. Chill. Sprinkle with parsley and paprika. (Note: The original version calls for leeks, but I use green onions).

We crossed the Bay bridge one night last week and almost all the lights were operating. It sure made a big difference with the new fixtures and we will be glad when the contractor has completed renovation of the system.

A lot of work has gone into the light system as all wiring is being replaced.

This afternoon the Annual Bay High Invitational Basketball Tournament gets underway.

The tournament will go through Saturday night for the championship.

All local high schools are in the tournament and we hope there will be large attendance for all of the games.

It will be an opportunity for basketball fans to see the players of all the schools in action.

We know Wilmer Seymour, Bay High athletic director, has worked hard getting the teams and schedules, so we hope to see you at the games.

A surprise visitor at the Echo office this week was Mrs. Powell Glass.

As many of you know, she and her late husband were former owners of the Echo and we worked for them for many years.

They left Bay St. Louis after Camille had completely destroyed their home on Beach Boulevard in Bay St. Louis. She still resides in Lynchburg, Va.

It was good to see Mrs. Glass and reports she is still involved in golfing activities.

There will be a blood drawing Saturday afternoon from 2-6 p.m. at the Bourgeois-Stieffel-Ray American Legion Post No. 77 home on Coleman Avenue in Waveland.

There are many persons who are unable to attend the Bay St. Louis American Legion Blood drawings because it is held on Wednesdays, so this is an opportunity for those folks.

Lin Rutherford, chairman of the drawing for Post 77, urges everyone able to please come and donate a unit of blood.

As always there is a need for more blood in Hancock County's supply, and no one really knows when they will need blood themselves.

We hope to see you at the blood drawing.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's planning workshop held Tuesday evening was a tremendous success.

It was very encouraging to see so many chamber members in attendance.

There were many items of interest discussed by the various committees and if only half of the plans are carried out, it will be a banner year for the chamber.

In order for the chamber to function, it takes the efforts of a lot of folks, and 1983 looks like much will be accomplished.

We will be hearing a lot about the many programs of the chamber in the weeks to come.

The setting at Holly Bluff on the Jourdan was ideal and Evelyn Johnson was a wonderful host.

It is a shame the rains had to come Wednesday before the base of Main Street was completed.

There has been a lot of talk this week about how good Main Street is shaping up.

A lot of discussion has been generated on the fast and professional way the contractor has moved on the project in only a few weeks.

We, like many others will be very happy to see Main Street completed early by the contractor.

CHAMBER IN ACTION—Members of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce have big plans for 1983. IN CONGRESS By Cong. Trent Lott Congressman Trent Lott, R-Miss., has introduced a bill to repeal the 10 percent withholding tax on interest and dividend payments scheduled to begin in July.

In a statement, Lott, the House Republican Whip, said the withholding idea was a "silly one to begin with. I disagreed with it when it was included in tax legislation last year but, under House procedures, there was no opportunity for a separate vote."

Lott's bill, HR 6, has been referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Some sources have estimated the loss of $1.5 billion a year to American savers and investors who would see the 10 percent tax withheld automatically by their banks and savings and loans, unless the law is repealed. Because the government would collect the tax immediately, Lott said he agreed that savers would lose the use of earnings that could otherwise have been compounded.

The withholding tax was included in the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 ostensibly to ensure taxpayer compliance in the area of interest. The Treasury Department reports, however, that at least 95 percent of taxpayers already pay taxes on interest and dividend income that is subject to reporting.

"I am concerned that this provision will result in an unfair loss to savers," Lott said. "It would also prove to be burdensome to elderly and low income persons who, although exempt, would have to file more paperwork to ensure their exemption."

"It's important to stop this law before it gets started," he said.

News from the Governor

MISSISSIPPI'S OFFSHORE POTENTIAL
Last summer the State of Mississippi embarked upon its offshore resources development program, and for many the initial results were disappointing.

The state's first offshore lease sale was held at a time when the petroleum industry was beginning to slow down. The result was something less than what had been hoped for by the state's leaders.

The Mississippi Economic Council has been studying last summer's offshore sale. Moreover, the Council reviewed the state's history in offshore petroleum development.

The MEC study found that historically, Mississippi has not consistently managed its offshore development program, saying that, "As state administrations and legislatures have passed from year to year, there has been a lack of continuity in offshore development management."

But there are encouraging signs, the study found. The state's decision to pursue offshore development is an improvement over past years when offshore potential was ignored. And the state now seems serious about future efforts to attract industry interest in the state waters.

But to be effective, the MEC study notes, this new offshore development effort must be consistent in the years ahead. It must be sustained with professional management so that the start Mississippi has made won't be a wasted effort.

Main Street renovation design presents hazards for handicapped

January 10, 1983

Letter to the Editor:

Re: Main Street Sidewalks

From out of all the dirt and mess that was Main Street for so long there is now evolving a new street environment.

Walking down the sidewalk can be quite a challenge first time. We who can walk will adapt to the fact at every driveway cut into the street there is a curb which we must step over.

Just think of how all these curbs are going to be for someone in a wheelchair. To them, it is a continual hazard.

It seems so insensitive to ignore standard specifications to make both buildings and sidewalks accessible to the handicapped.

These documents have been available to the professional design community for over five years now, yet none of these recommendations have been applied to the work on Main Street and for the most part of Beach Boulevard downtown.

For example if a walk is intersected by another walk, driveway, parking lot or street, then at least some portion of the walk should be at or blend to a common level.

Curb ramps should slope to the street with flared sides to allow a wheel chair or a pedestrian to transverse without tripping.

The character of walking downtown should be one that you can look up to enjoy the sky, the water, the people, the architectural ambience; not of a character where we must walk to the post office with our eyes cast to our feet.

Renovated Main Street could be showplace if kept clean

Dear Ed:

Let's dream the impossible dream — and reach the unreachable star in our desire to see Bay St. Louis' Main Street the wide, beautiful and litter-free street of the area.

A recent study revealed that unwanted items — everything from paper napkins to beverage cans, despoil the beauty of any area.

Trash rots — but not right away. It takes an orange peel two to five months to decay; plastic bags require about ten to twenty years to decompose; hiking boot soles remain intact from fifty to eighty years! And the winner in longevity — aluminum cans — will stay somewhere from 80 to 100 years!

When the street is finally resurfaced it will be clean — smooth and free of all this unwanted litter. Let's strive to keep it that way.

Get the litter bag and trash receptacle habit.

Forester urges extra caution in burning during wildfire season

Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Editor,

As we all know, we are now well into wildfire season. This is the time of year when vegetation has dried back and is very easily ignited, especially during the prolonged absence of rain.

The day before this writing (1-18-83) we had four wildfires in Hancock County burning a total of 161 acres. Two of these fires were caused by careless burning of trash piles and two were set by arsonists.

I would like to take time to thank the concerned citizens who were a major factor in putting out the fire just northwest of Asher's Grocery.

I feel like most people are responsible citizens, as those were.

But there are still a few people who, either carelessly or irresponsibly, cause the rest of us trouble and needless work.

To the careless, we need to warn them that their actions affect us all. Take time to call the fire tower (255-7152), and see if it's safe to burn. Then get a burning permit. Clear out an area around your trash pile. And then watch your fire to see that it safely burns. See today's Timberline about laws concerning irresponsible burning.

To the arsonist who, for some reason unknown, likes to burn the woods, we say there are very stiff penalties in store (see Timberline).

If you think you are doing us all a favor, please don't. There are right ways to do things and there are wrong ways. We have trained professionals who know exactly when and how to burn to achieve desired results. If you need some burning done, please call us. We'll be glad to do it for you.

Thank you,

Telephone customer complains about $100 reconnection fee following delay in payment

To the Editor and readers:

I have just had a most unpleasant experience with the South Central Bell Telephone Company.

Monday, Jan. 17 my phone was cut off. When I called the phone company Tuesday morning, they told me that my bill had never been paid.

I bought a money order on Mon., Jan. 10 and mailed my phone bill which was $84.88 for December services.

The supervisor told me I would have to pay $100 to have my phone turned back on.

I feel that $100 is a mite steep, as I'm sure plenty of you feel.

I'm sure that I'm not the only one this has happened to. This man made me a bit angry and I told the supervisor that I thought this was a bit unfair.

I had the money order receipt. In a very rude manner the man told me the money order receipt didn't mean anything to him.

He just wanted the bill paid plus $100. Just what is a person's word these days?

I guess it's my word against his.

I asked the supervisor why they did not have a place over here to pay your phone bill. After all, they do have a telephone office here and why can't they hire someone to collect the bills a few days a week.

I feel they make enough money on us. After all, we are the paying people. I don't have to go to Gulfport or Biloxi to pay my utilities or doctor bills.

If I wouldn't have to buy a money order (which costs $.50 to $1. plus tax) and mail it, this might not have happened.

I'm not saying our postal services is bad, mail does get misplaced. But the supervisor thought a bit different and told me I couldn't have everything in life I wanted.

Now I don't think I want to pay the phone company that $100. But if I don't I have no phone.

I guess it really is a monopoly. I would love to hear your viewpoints. Please reply.

Return of visitor's lost purse leaves lasting impression

Gentlemen,

During Christmas and New Year's I was the house guest of the Irene Richie family and enjoyed my visit in your city.

New Year's Day we made a trip to a produce stand on US-90 to buy cabbage for the New Year.

While we were at the stand we were all joking with the owner and when we left I picked up my groceries and left my purse on the counter.

We made several other stops and went home and six hours later I missed my purse.

We traced back to the produce stand and when we went in the owner had my purse with $140 and everything still in place.

It is very heart warming to know that we still have honest people among us today.

Not only were my holidays full of fun, this put the "topping" on it.

My thanks to all of the nice people in your area.

Hancock County Forester

Forest Fires—they're an ongoing problem in Mississippi which starts in the Fall, lasts through Winter and climaxes in the early Spring.

The Forestry Commission suppressed 6,428 fires which burned a total of 81,585 acres statewide during our most recent (1982) fiscal year (July 1981—June 1982).

Hancock County had 210 fires with 5,212 acres burned. The fiscal year before that we fought 10,364 fires which ravaged 203,483 acres.

Hancock County had 475 fires with 20,524 acres burned. There are two basic sources of forest fires.

One is nature—lightning strikes.

The other is people—incendiarism, debris burning, smoking, campfires, equipment use, etc.

In every case of a person-caused fire, either lack of knowledge of the hazards, failure to take proper precautions, or stubbornness, maliciousness, or carelessness is involved.

The problem of wildfires has apparently been with us since biblical times. Exodus 22:6 states, "If a fire break out and catch in thorns, so that stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he that kindleth the fire shall surely make restitution."

Mississippi Law follows the guidelines of the aforementioned "Doctrine of Liability" with regard to wildfire. For instance, note the following excerpts from the statutes:

1. Deliberate woods firing is a felony, carrying a maximum penalty of two years in the State Penitentiary and $1,000 fine.
2. Putting anything likely to start a fire on highway and road right-of-way or upon private property is a misdemeanor—person responsible civilly, and in addition may be fined a maximum of $500.
3. Allowing fire to escape to lands of another is a misdemeanor, with maximum penalty being three months in the county jail and fined $500.
4. Damage resulting from woods fire may be collected by injured party.
5. Cost of suppressing fire may be collected by recognized agency from person or firm responsible.

Law enforcement agencies are cooperating more and more with the Commission in the enforcement of these laws. Also, private citizens are more readily volunteering as witnesses in an attempt to reduce the magnitude of this problem.

And, more and more companies, institutions and organizations are offering rewards to assist in prompting these witnesses.

We need to all be concerned enough about our annual losses to wildfire in Hancock County, to do something about it.

If you have any information pertaining to a violation of any of the first fire laws, please call us or the Sheriff's Office.

Imperilled Puffins return to Maine after 100 years

RETURN OF THE PUFFINS—More important than the return of the swallows to Capistrano was the return of Puffin number 54 to Eastern Egg Rock Island—the first puffin to nest and raise her young there in over 100 years, according to Ranger Rick's Nature Magazine.

Years ago, Eastern Egg Rock Island in Maine was the spring and summer home of hundreds of puffins busy raising families.

The island was soon discovered by humans, who killed the puffins, stole their eggs, plucked their feathers for pillows and mattresses, and took their wings to decorate hats. Some people ate puffin meat and used parts of their bodies as fishing bait.

By 1902, only one pair of puffins was left.

Thanks to the efforts of Dr. Stephen Kress, a biologist and Audubon's "puffin project," puffins are returning to nest and raise their young on this Maine island after nearly a century of absence.

Kress hopes to spread the puffin population around so that if they become endangered in one place, there will be plentiful puffins elsewhere, according to the monthly children's publication of the National Wildlife Federation.

In order to repopulate Eastern Egg Rock, Kress collected ten day-old puffin chicks from Newfoundland and brought them to Maine.

Now a surrogate father, he dug little underground burrows for the chicks and fed them raw fish twice a day, just like parent puffins do.

He didn't handle the chicks any more than necessary or talk to much around them, wanting them to grow up like "wild" puffins.

Wild puffins spend most of the lives on the open ocean. When they are ready to raise families, they return to their birth place. Kress had to "trick" his transported chicks into thinking that Eastern Egg Rock was their real home so they would return there to nest.

Ranger Rick says that one particular bird, Puffin number 54, adapted very well to her new home.

She stretched her wings, dug in her little house and came out at night to exercise while her enemies were asleep.

When she was 50 days old, she left her burrow for good, swimming into the night to begin four years of growing up.

While she was away, Kress moved more puffin chicks to the island in hopes that they would return to nest, as he hoped Puffin 54 would.

BLUES GUITAR—The next entry in the Mississippi ETV series on "Mississippi Roads" is a close-up look at people at work and play. "Mississippi Roads" can be seen at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 25, on the Mississippi ETV Network.

Featured on the program are Lonnie Pitchford of Lexington, a blues guitarist; Dick Austin, a sailing enthusiast from Gulfport; Don Klute, a dolphin trainer from Gulfport; Charlie Kemp, a sports car dealer from Jackson; and Dr. Roland Powell, a veterinarian from Jackson.

"Mississippi Roads" is rebroadcast at 2:30 p.m., Sundays.

WEED SCIENCE—"Farmweek" will present a story about the Southern Weed Science Association's meeting held in Jackson from Jan. 18-20 when the program airs at 7:30

On July 4, 1981, his wish came true. Puffin 54 flew into sight with a beak full of fish and slipped into a crack in the rocks. She came out without the fish—a sure sign that she had a chick to feed.

After almost 100 years, the first baby puffin has been born on the island.

During the summer of 1982, eleven pairs of puffins were nesting on the island, according to Ranger Rick, giving Eastern Egg Rock a permanent population of puffins.

Jitney tells opening date, lists personnel

A new supermarket will come to Bay St. Louis Monday with the grand opening of Jitney-Jungle, located in the MarketTown Shopping Center at the junction of US-90 and Dunbar Avenue.

The new store will create approximately 60 new jobs in the Bay St. Louis area, Jitney officials said.

The facility will formally open with a ribbon cutting ceremony at 8 a.m. Monday and will then be officially open for business afterward.

The 30,000 square-foot outlet is part of a Jackson-based chain which extends throughout Mississippi and Northern Florida.

The store is equipped with a computerized scanning system with prices shown on a computer prepared label on the shelf.

At the checkstand a checker will pass the product across a special window on the checkout counter, with a computer supplying price onto a viewing screen, and printing the item and price on a register receipt.

The scanner registers are also equipped with "Positalker"—the cash register that talks.

The Positalker is manufactured by National Semiconductor Corporation for use with Datachecker scanning equipment.

Positalker and the checker work jointly to provide price calling and fast courteous service.

Positalker is a recording of a real voice translated into digital information and placed on a silicon microchip.

Company officials feel the new register serves to make customers more aware of the prices being charged. When an item is scanned the price is recalled from the computer memory and given to the Positalker, visual display and receipt printer.

Positalker tells the customer the price while the item description and price are shown on the visual display and customer receipt.

Randy Creel, a native of Biloxi, will manage the new store.

He began his career with Jitney-Jungle in 1978 and has served in various management positions.

He and his wife Brenda now live in Biloxi with their three children, Brian, Kim and Kelly.

Serving as co-managers will be Jerry Tant, Ken Ramsey and Larry Joffron. Tant, a native of Memphis, has 14 years grocery experience. He began as a part-time employee for a Memphis supermarket chain and has served in a management position for more than five years.

Tant and his wife Kathryn, will be living in the Bay St. Louis area with their children Shawn and Alexis.

Ken Ramsey will be serving as perishable co-manager. He has been with Jitney-Jungle for six years starting as a part-time package helper. Ramsey advanced through the company's manager trainee program to the position of co-manager in 1981. He is originally from Ocean Springs and now resides in Bay St. Louis.

Joffron began as a co-manager with Jitney-Jungle and has served in this position for three years. He is a native of Gulfport and now resides in Bay St. Louis with his wife Donetta and their son Brent.

Market manager for the store will be Delaine Beach. Beach has a total of 28 years experience in market operations. He has been employed with Jitney-Jungle since 1966. Beach and his wife Pat and their three children, Gary, Wanda and Lyntia reside in Gulfport.

Emile Smith will serve as produce manager. Smith has been employed with Jitney-Jungle since 1972. He has served as produce manager for more than three years. He and his wife Roma and their daughter Mary now reside in Bay St. Louis.

Sue Thatcher will serve as bookkeeper for the new store. She is a native and resident of Bay St. Louis and brings with her 16 years of bookkeeping experience.

Thatcher has been employed with Jitney-Jungle since 1966.

Jean Foster, a native of Louisville, will serve as the deli manager. She has been with Jitney-Jungle since 1972 and during that time she has served as deli manager for more than seven years.

Foster and her husband, J.C. and their children, Gloria, Patricia and Jamie now live in Long Beach.

A complete floral department which will be managed by Regina Necaise. Necaise, a native of Bay St. Louis, brings with her more than seven years of floral designing experience. She and her husband Garrie now live in Waveland.

Serving as general merchandise manager will be Nancy Centerbar. She began with the company in 1976 as a cashier. Originally from Gulfport, she now resides in Ocean Springs.

"The concept of offering quality groceries at reasonable prices has been the cornerstone of Jitney-Jungle's operation since the first Jitney opened in 1919 on East Capitol Street in downtown Jackson," Creel stated.

The name "Jitney-Jungle" actually means savings because "jitney" was then a slang term for a nickel.

The company's founders, Judson McCarty Holman, William Bonner McCarty and William Henry Holman, stated in their advertising that their customers saved a nickel on every quarter.

Such savings were accomplished because the store operated on a cash-and-carry basis instead of the then common practice of ordering by telephone, charging the groceries, and having the items delivered to the home.

City and county officials along with local businessmen and Chamber of Commerce officials will join company officials for opening ceremonies Monday.

Also, Alesia Smith, Hancock County's Miss Hospitality will be present.

ZONING
RELATIVELY NEW QUESTION: I was curious as to the origin of zoning ordinances. Exactly what is zoning and where does the power to zone originate? M. W. Jackson

Dear M. W.:
Zoning is a police power device which allows for legislative decision of space into districts and imposition of regulations prescribing use and intensity of use to which land within each designated district may be put. Although rudimentary land-use regulations have existed in this country since early colonial days, zoning is a relatively new technique. It was not until 1916 that the first comprehensive zoning ordinance was passed in the City of New York. In 1926, the U.S. Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of zoning in the landmark case of Village of Euclid v. Ambler Realty Co. on the basis of police power.

A local government receives the power of zoning from the state in much the same way it receives its power to plan. Ordinarily, authority is given in a state enabling act. Most zoning enabling legislation is based on the Standard State Zoning Enabling Act which was developed by the U.S. Department of Commerce in 1922 and revised in 1926.

A zoning ordinance has two major parts: (1) the text which contains various regulations and standards, and (2) the map which divides an area into different districts. The zoning map is constantly updated and indicates the zoning status of each parcel of land in the community.

A second overall purpose of zoning is to preserve property values. When zoning helps carry out a plan it is called "directive zoning." When it helps preserve value it is called "protective zoning."

For answers to your questions, write Dr. Dennis Tosh, P. O. Box 295, University, Miss. 38677.

WRITING SERIES

"Edit Point," a new instructional television series produced by Mississippi ETV, will break new ground in the teaching of basic writing skills by showing teenage characters actually engaged in good writing practices, not just defining terms for the viewing audience.

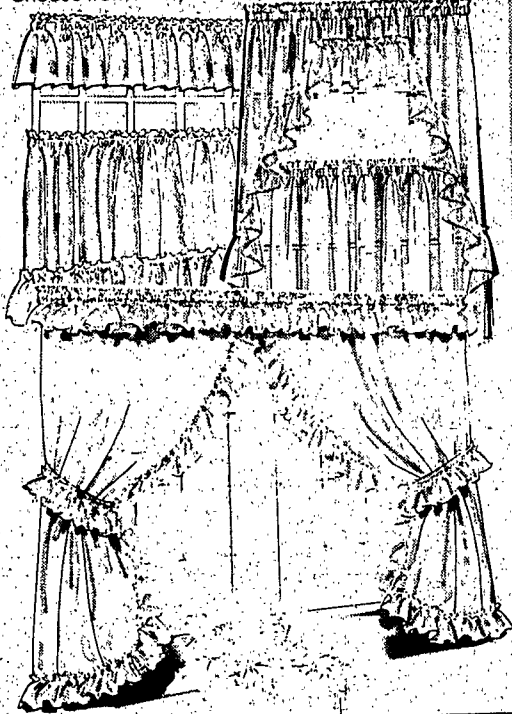

The five half-hour lessons in the series are targeted at high school, junior high and middle school English students. The three main characters in the series serve as positive role models who demonstrate everyday writing and provide for the viewing audience important and timely topics for their own writing.

In the series, the three main characters, Camille, Chuck and Martin, are keeping an independent television station on the air in New Orleans until Camille's father, the manager, recuperates from an illness. Their jobs require writing clear, concise news stories, letters, memos, scripts and advertisement copy. Their personal lives as well involve the process of writing. Each dramatic episode, whether it's about the television station or the characters themselves, centers on the need for effective writing.

"Edit Point" can be seen at 1 p.m., Mondays, beginning Jan. 24. Each program will be rebroadcast at 2:30 p.m., Wednesdays. "Edit Point" was produced by Chris McGuire; instructional developer was Constance Queen; director was Andrew Ferguson, Emmy Award-winning producer/director of "The Electric Company;" and writers were Pamela Douglas and Martin Yarbrough.

RECOVERY SYMPTOMS

Whenever a person is sick and begins recovering, the symptoms he has had change to conform to the body's recovery effort. For instance, let's assume you need a friend dribbling from the nose with the general symptoms marked by a cold. You exclaim: "Why, Mrs. Jones, you have a cold!" But really she does not. She is already recovering because she is draining. It is the people who do not drain that get the flu, pneumonia, etc. Thus, it is natural to see that recovery symptoms with sedatives, etc., because you may retard the body's ability to recover and prolong the recovery period. The science of Chiropractic recognizes this important difference between the body's recovery effort and the body's recovery period. Chiropractic care helps the body's recovery effort by removing the interference within the frame of the body, allowing the body to achieve a faster recovery and better health.

ready to get away from showbusiness pressures.

De-Ahna now resides in the Shoreline Park area where she raises ducks and chickens as a hobby, she reports.

She says her conservative attitude—compelling her to personally shun drinking, smoking and drugs—was the result of her strict Philippine Catholic upbringing.

Her father was a wealthy Philippine senator and her mother was native Spanish school principal. Both were killed recently in an automobile accident, she added.

Digna A. Ray (De-Ahna's real name) realized at four years of age after winning her first dance contest that she wanted to perform.

But to please her parents, after representing her country as Miss Philippines, she earned a bachelor of arts degree in education at the University of San Diego, Calif.

De-Ahna says because she was not satisfied with teaching she tried other "acceptable" professions and as a result is a trained dietitian, dental assistant and cosmetologist.

In addition, she speaks six languages—Chinese, Japanese, French, Spanish, English and Philippine.

"...but I always wanted to dance. I love my work and I knew I could entertain people," she states.

Against her parents' wishes, she began improving herself as a dancer by studying ballet under Angel Wolfe in California and developed her alto soprano singing voice.

Explaining how she meshes her profession and domestic lifestyle, De-Ahna states, "One hobby I have is cooking and I'm a gourmet cook, but at night I'm a star."

But she sadly admits her profession has stifled her personal relationships with men and as a result has never married.

De-Ahna reports regarding her night spot, "I'm trying to run my place beautifully with clean and high class entertainment that people can be happy with."

She says she will also demand high standards of conduct from her employees and has posted a sign in dressing rooms stating "no drugs, no soliciting."

She hopes to offer a caliber of entertainment comparable to New Orleans or New York, but not offensive to anyone.

Her performances incorporate a variety of dance styles and costumes reflecting various themes.

In fact, she will offer a special performance tentatively planned for Jan. 28 to Bay St. Louis city officials just after ribbon cutting ceremonies for her business.

De-Ahna plans to bring magician Flash Hurley of Canada, bands and nationally-recognized entertainers to Night Gallery.

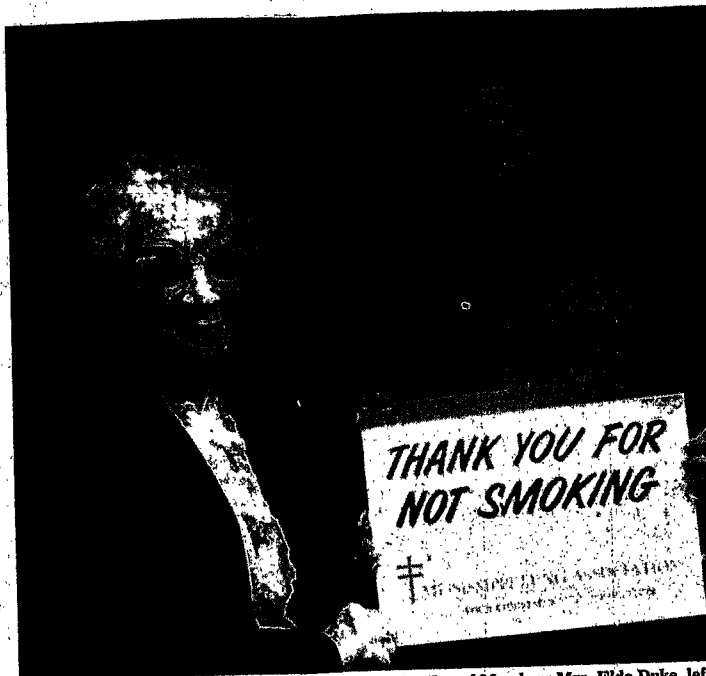

She believes her establishment will help other businesses on Beach Boulevard by drawing more people to the night spot area.

"I believe by coming here, I will help pull business for everyone else. I believe this will give progress to the city," she states.

De-Ahna also hopes to eventually contribute to various local charities.

"I didn't come here with an attitude to make money. I've saved my money for nine years and I enjoy helping others who are less fortunate," she states.

"I plan to be here in Bay St. Louis for the rest of my life," De-Ahna adds.

POSTER AVAILABLE—Mississippi Lung Association Board Members Mrs. Elda Duke, left, of Waveland and Mrs. Missie W. Huggins of Yazoo City display a "Thank You For Not Smoking" poster which is available from the association. Increasing awareness of effects of second-hand smoke has brought about a rapidly increasing volume of requests for pamphlets, signs and other material to help protect the air we breathe. "Thank You For Not Smoking" desk cards, poster signs of various sizes, and buttons for use in homes, schools and businesses, may be obtained free of charge from the Mississippi Lung Association, P.O. Bay Invitational Tourney to pit 'balanced' teams

By BRENT MACEY
The Bay High School Invitational Basketball Tournament beginning tonight in Tiger Dome may be one of the best high school basketball tournaments on the Coast this year, according to several Hancock County coaches.

"The competition is so close that it's going to be a real good tournament," Hancock North Central Head Coach Mike Halley said about both the boys' and girls' competition. "Almost all the teams are equally balanced," he added.

His comments were reiterated by Hancock girls' Coach Larry Johnson and Bay High School girls' Coach William (Zeke) Bradley.

Halley claimed girls' and boys' teams from four or five schools have the capability of winning the tournament, including the tough Class AA teams of St. Martin, Picayune and Long Beach.

The Class A Bay High School boys' and girls' teams, along with the Pass Christian boys' team and the Hancock boys' and girls' teams, all have taken turns defeating the Class AA ball clubs this year. All three school teams can be considered tough contenders.

While Hancock boys and girls got off to a slow start this season, the boys have won the last three of four games to give them an 8-3 season.

The girls have also started to shine, winning the last four of five games and entering the tournament with a 9-7 season record.

Halley feels his young team is just beginning to show their true potential and stated the boys' victory over Picayune Saturday was the first time they (Hancock) played like they were supposed to play.

Bay High, with a 14-3 season and coached by Jerry Spell, may have a tough time against the up and coming Hancock team.

Both the Tiger boys' and girls' teams drew byes in the first round of play Thursday.

The boys, at 8:45 Friday, will face the winner of the St. Martin, Hancock North Central game which is scheduled tonight at 6:15 p.m.

The Bay High girls, on Friday at 7:30 p.m., will take on the winner of the Pass High School, Long Beach game, scheduled this afternoon at 3:45 p.m.

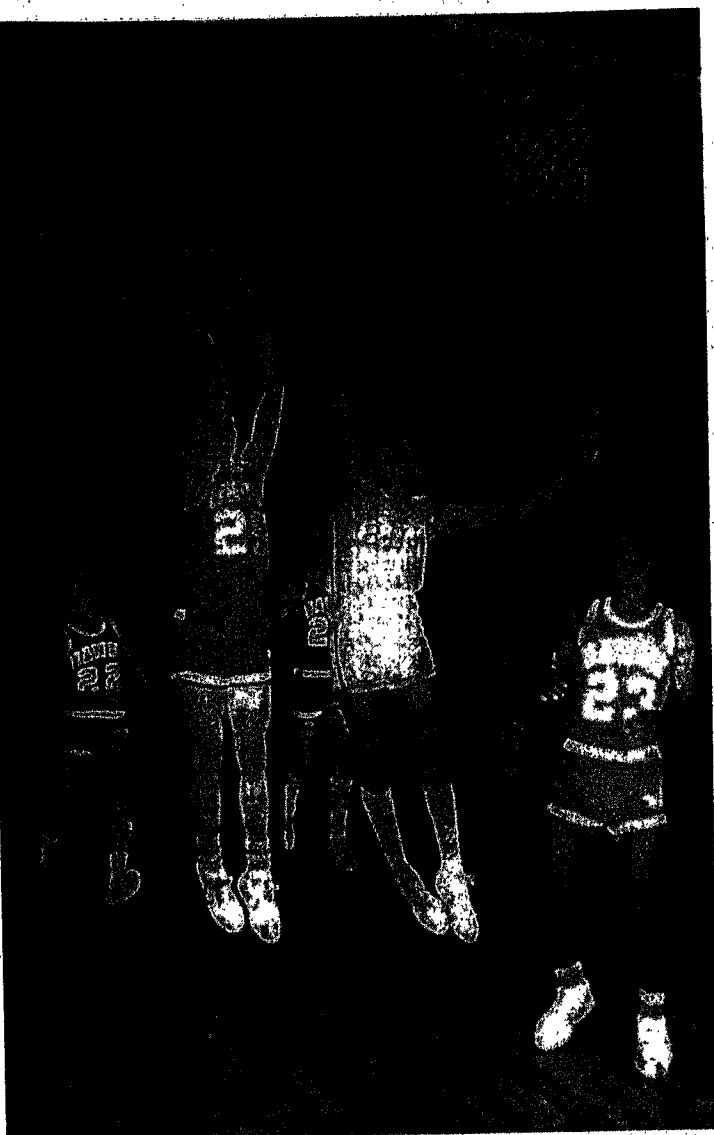

The Hancock girls' team drew a bye Thursday and will play the winner of the Picayune, St. Martin game at 5 p.m. Friday.

The Pass High boys will play Picayune tonight at 7:30 p.m., while the Pass High School girls face Long Beach at 3:45 p.m. today.

St. Stanislaus, the only remaining local team which may have some surprises in store, will face Long Beach, the biggest high school team in the tournament, today at 8:45 p.m.

Local basketball results reported

The Hancock North Central High School basketball team rallied in the second half of a game against the Pass Christian Pirates Tuesday to earn themselves a 42-40 victory.

At half time the Hancock Hawks trailed by six points but then came back to tie the Pirates, at end of the third quarter.

Hawk Cedric Goff, who was the Hawks' second highest scorer with 12 points, fouled out in the fourth period along with Darrin Ladner after helping the Hawks build a nine point lead early in the fourth quarter.

While the Pass Christian Pirates took advantage of the situation, the nine-point lead was too much to over come, and the ball game ended with a two-point margin.

Pass Christian's Ramone Henderson was the leading Pirate scorer with 11 points. Hancock's Neal Ladner was the game's high scorer with 14 hoops.

In girls' action, the Hancock girls downed the Lady Pirates 49-36.

Hawkette Connie Ladner was high scorer with 18 points followed by Betsy Arcement with 16.

Clarice Saucier was high scorer for The Pass with 13 points.

The victories over Pass Christian followed Hawk and Hawkette victories Saturday over a tough Picayune High School.

In the boys' game Saturday, the Hawks downed Picayune 50-48 and the girls squeaked out a 47-45 victory.

Hancock boys' coach Mike Halley noted the boys' game against Picayune was 'real close.'

Although a Picayune player scored to tie the ball game at the end of regular time, the referee ruled the shot went through the hoop after the buzzer.

Neal Ladner was high scorer with 25 points followed by Cedric Goff with 15.

In girls' action, Connie Ladner, sank a bucket with five seconds remaining in the game to lead the Hawkettes to their narrow victory.

Betsy Arcement was high scorer for the Hawkettes with 19 points.

BAY HIGH

The Bay High School Tigers downed the Hancock North Central Hawks Thursday in the Tiger Dome 69-47 and then continued their winning ways against Vancleave Tuesday, 61-31.

The Bay, now 14-3 for the season, grabbed an impressive 32-16 margin at half time and then coasted to victory against Hancock.

Ronnie Lyons led the Tigers with 18 points while T.J. Favre and Milas Harvey added 14 points each.

Hawk Neal Ladner was the game's high scorer with 25 points and teammate Darrin Ladner added 10 more.

In girls' action, Michelle

Dorsey hit for 20 points to lead the Tigerettes to a 55-47 victory over the Hawkettes. Jonique Farve contributed 12 points.

Connie Ladner led Hancock with 14 points and teammate Betsy Arcement added 13.

In the boys' Vancleave game, Milas Harvey and Kenneth Cline paved the way for the Tiger victory.

Harvey totalled 16 and Cline added 15.

The Tigerettes, now 14-3 for the season, gained a 66-52 victory over the Lady Bulldogs despite a 39 point effort by Vancleave center Tracey Neal.

Tigerette Michelle Dorsey led the Bay with 19 points, followed by Dina Beniot with 14 and Jonique Farve with 10.

Bay Jr. High downs PRC

The Bay Junior High School ninth grade boys earned an easy victory over Pearl River Central last week to increase their winning season to 11-3.

The boys, spearheaded by Wes Dedeaux with 19 points and Jeffrey Smith with 16 points, won 49-39.

The girls had more trouble against the Blue Devils and dropped their contest 28-17.

Tigerette Marissa Lyons led the Bay with 11 in that contest. In eighth grade boys' action, Bay Junior High School team came from behind to down Pearl River Central 40-35 and retain an 8-0 undefeated season.

The eighth grade Tigers were behind 11 points going into the fourth quarter, according to Coach Barney Necaise. However the team managed 20 points in the final period while PRC mustered only four.

Andre Daniels led the Bay with 18 points while Robert Lee Harvey totalled 11.

On Tuesday, the Bay's eighth grade boys defeated Pearl River 47-27. Greg Necaise and Andre Daniels led the scoring with 13 points each.

On Monday, the ninth grade boys and girls will take on Pass Christian at Pass Christian.

The eighth grade boys will ace PRC again Tuesday in the opening round of the Picayune Invitational Tournament.

Vaughn, Barrett, Nunn spark PRJC to victory

The Pearl River College Basketball Wildcats knocked off the Southwest Bears 72-63 in Poplarville Monday night.

Gone are starters McDouglas Gabriel, Mathew Bacon and Terry Peabody.

Scott Vaughn, Nicky Fruge, Andy Barrett and Steve Nunn sparked PRC to the win over Southwest, putting the Wildcats with a 6-8 overall ledger and a 3-4 conference mark.

"We have our work cut out for us," Holmes said. "It is not going to be easy, but I do think the group we have now will give it a hundred percent and we will be competitive."

If Holmes had promised anything else he would be going out on a limb because the Wildcats have games remaining against Co-Lin, Gulf Coast, Utica and Hinds in the tough South Division.

All four of these units have strong, experienced clubs and could go all the way to the state title game this year.

Scott Vaughn, Nicky Fruge, Andy Barrett and Steve Nunn, also all of the 'Cats' schedule and they both have defeated the 'Cats' this season.

Vaughn, a Picayune sophomore, scored 24 against the Bears Monday and has really been impressive since the Christmas break. Fruge, a standout at Oak Grove, and transfer from William Carey, tallied eight.

The other newcomers, Barrett, from Bay St. Louis, did not score, however the 6-6 freshman did work well under the boards. Nunn, a Hancock North Central player who was a member of the 'Cats' two years ago, will also contribute much to the PRC team.

Sophomore Randy Smith of Petal, who has seen the players come and go over the past two years, pumped in 17 against Southeast.

The Wildcats will play Co-Lin Thursday and then entertain Utica on Saturday night. The 1987 and 1988 Wildcat basketball teams will be honored Saturday at the halftime of the Utica game. Twenty-five years ago the '88 Wildcats won the overall state basketball title.

Lady Wildcats drop Bears 86-69

Pearl River College's Lady Wildcats dropped the Lady Bears from Southwest 86-69 Monday night to post a 10-4 overall ledger and 4-3 division mark.

Freshman Carmen Reed of New Orleans scored 24 as sophomore Sharon Williams scored 19 and Jackie Ridgway, another New Orleans' freshman pitched in 14.

"That's the best we have looked in a while," said Billy Holmes, the Wildcats' head coach. "We hustled and made things happen. I was pleased."

PRC led 46-30 at halftime and was never really in trouble after the early moments of the game. Holmes played all 10 Lady Wildcats during the contest.

"We have to start getting things together," Holmes said. "The South Division Tournament is just around the corner and our goal is to repeat as champs."

The Lady Wildcats were scheduled to play Co-Lin, the South Division leader, at home tonight. The Lady Wolves, the team the Lady Wildcats beat in the finals of the South tournament last year, has a sparkling 7-0 ledger.

On Saturday night the Lady 'Cats will entertain the Lady Bulldogs from Utica.

St. Paul's Carnival Association reveals theme, grand marshal

St. Paul's Carnival Association has chosen the theme "Famous Or Favorite Littles," according to the chairman of the theme selection committee, Ed Werner.

Carnival Association President Wayne James reports the parade marshal for 1983 will be Pass Christian Fire Chief George Mixon.

For parade information Mixon can be reached by writing to the association, P.O. Box 375, Pass Christian, Miss. 39571 or by calling 452-2448.

Mixon has set Feb. 4 as deadline for float entries.

Bands and marching units are asked to contact Mixon as soon as possible.

Date of the parade is Feb. 13.

Starting time will be at 2 p.m. All units will be required to be in the parade line-up by 12:30 p.m. on Sunday.

The guidelines used by the judges when judging the floats are available from Mixon, Wayne James, or at the Pass Christian Fire Station.

The association also has issued its 17th annual commemorative Mardi Gras Doubleton depicting the theme of this year's ball and parade, "Famous Littles" on the obverse.

The reverse side of the coin is stamped with the historical marker containing the legend of the founding of Pass Christian.

THE 1983 ST. PAUL'S DOUBLOON path taking a basket to grandma's house; 'Little Women' and 'Little Men' growing up and facing life; 'Little Red Haired Girl' turning Charlie Brown to jelly," she continued.

"'Lil' Orphan Annie' in New York City or 'Lil' Abner' in a quieter location, Dogpatch; hills climbed by 'Little Engine Who Could' or Montana Hills surrounding the 'Little Big Horn'; dancing the swing to the tune of 'Little Brown Jug'; the antics of the 'Little Rascals' and the big play of our 'Little Leaguers,'" the artist added.

"And so they come, our 'Famous Littles' from serious literature, nursery rhymes, fairy tales, comic strips, movies and everyday life, to awake memories and bring out the child in all of us — and hopefully add to your total enjoyment of this year's Mardi Gras," Boudreaux stated.

A list of 'Famous or Favorite Littles' might include: Three Little Pigs, Little Women, Little House on the Prairie, Little Red Riding Hood, Little Miss Muffet, Little Boy Blue, Little Jack Horner, Little Abner, and Little Orphan Annie.

Also, Little Bo Peep, Chicken Little, Little Black Sambo, Three Little Kittens, Rich Little, Little White Dove, Little Red Haired Girl, Little Egypt, The Little Red Caboose, The Little Red Hen, and Little Pussians.

Tennis tournament winners reported

The Stabler-St. Pierre team of the St. Paul Carnival Association conducted two open mixed double tennis tournaments Sunday: one in Bay St. Louis and the other in Pass Christian.

In finals action in the Bay St. Louis tournament, Michelle Brown and Bud Phillips defeated Mary and John McDonnell 6-1, 6-4.

Also in that tournament, Susan Plesala and Mike Collins defeated Ellen Kane and Jimmy Loiacano 4-6, 6-2, 6-2 in consolation play.

In finals action in the Pass Christian tournament, Elizabeth Watts and Eddy Cranford defeated JoAnn LaRochelle and Bill McCollister 6-3, 6-2.

In the consolation match, Chris Thelbold and Joe Scott topped Diane Niolet and Mike VanWinkle 6-0, 8-10, and 6-0.

Lands opened to hunting

More lands have been reopened to hunting in the Mississippi Delta, according to the Department of Wildlife Conservation.

The agency's five-member Commission, meeting in Cleveland on Tuesday, Jan. 18, agreed to reopen the following lands to all hunting and trapping within the already established seasons:

—Sharkey County: all lands west of Highway 61 and all lands north of Highway 14.

—Issaquena County: all lands west of the main line

Mississippi River levee, and all lands north of the Goose Lake Road and west of Highway 61.

According to a commission spokesman the action came as a result of falling flood waters in the Delta.

However, the spokesman said that even in some areas reopened to hunting, there are still some spots that have high water where game animals and birds have been unable to return to their natural surroundings. It is still illegal to hunt in these high water spots.

This side also contains the wording "St. Paul's Carnival Association — Organized 1930 — Dedicated to Education — Religion — Citizenship."

The doubloon may be purchased from Mrs. Mildred Reid, chairman of the Doubloon Committee, by calling St. Paul's School in Pass Christian or by writing to the Carnival Association, P.O. Box 375, Pass Christian, Mississippi, 39571.

The medallions, which have become popular with collectors, are available in silver sets (only 100 are issued each year); bronze; tri-colored and in the popular aluminum, thrown by float riders.

The doubloons may also be purchased from either of the two carnival teams of Dennis Stabler and Sandra St. Pierre or Charles Bates and Linda Perkins.

The two teams take orders for the coins at all functions and by telephone.

The doubloon was designed and illustrated by Mrs. Karen Boudreaux, art chairman for the Carnival Association.

"Famous Littles" appear in fact and fantasy throughout history," Boudreaux said.

"Tales of heroes and heroines fill our imagination with ideas and our sleep with dreams of the 'Little Lame Prince' high up in his castle; 'Little John' taking from the rich and giving to the poor, along with Robin Hood in Sherwood Forest," Boudreaux suggested.

"Three Lil' Pigs' running over the hills; 'Little Boy Blue' asleep in the meadow; 'Little Red Riding Hood' happily skipping down a forest

POINT OF LAW

Mississippi State Bar

(Prepared by the Mississippi State Bar. Some legal rights may vary from locality to locality. Always consult an attorney when in doubt about your rights.)

Q: What recourse does an individual have, whose checkbook has been stolen and checks were forged on his account?

A: As the bank's customer, the individual has the right to require the bank to recredit his account with the amount of the forged checks. A bank generally cannot charge its customer's account for checks that were not written by the customer.

There are some exceptions. A customer has a duty to examine any statements and cancelled checks sent to him by the bank. If the customer does not examine a statement and therefore fails to discover a forged check, and the same person later forges another check on his account, the customer may not be able to recover from the bank.

If the customer had examined the statement and informed the bank of the first forgery, the bank would have been alerted to watch for other forgeries by the same person.

Q: What should an individual do if a check that is made out to him is stolen?

A: If someone writes a check to an individual, and the check is stolen, the individual from whom the check was stolen should immediately notify the person who gave him the check.

He should ask the person who made out the check to notify the bank and put a stop payment order on the check. The stop payment order should be given by the person who made out the check rather than by the person who was holding the check.

Q: What are the general origins of juvenile law?

A: At the turn of the century, lawmakers determined they should take young offenders out of the adult criminal justice system and place them in specialized juvenile courts. The aim of juvenile law was to rehabilitate, rather than to punish.

However, by the 1960s it was perceived that this form of juvenile justice was often unfair and arbitrary because sentences varied widely and often were more severe than adults would have received for the same crime.

Further, the system deprived juveniles of their constitutional rights, such as written notice of charges, the right to a lawyer, and adequate time to prepare a defense.

Q: How does the court decide if the rights of a child should prevail in a legal proceeding or if the rights of the parents should prevail?

A: This is one of the most difficult issues to resolve in juvenile justice. Various supreme court rulings have determined three guides about children's rights that lower courts must follow in making their decision.

The first is that parents have the primary responsibility to raise their children.

The second is that the state has the responsibilities to children and can intervene and act as 'parent' if the children are abused, neglected, abandoned or their parents' lifestyle is considered to be inadequate or inappropriate for raising children.

The third aspect of children's rights is that as 'people' they have rights of their own and as 'individuals' they have rights in relation to the family and to the state.

Q: What are some of the legal rights and responsibilities granted when a person turns 18?

A: When a person turns 18, he or she is eligible to vote and can register for local, state and federal elections.

At this age, young people have the right to make contracts, such as a lease agreement or credit purchase.

However, if they fail to meet the terms of the contract, they can be sued.

Another right—and responsibility—is to own and to control their own property and to control the money they earn.

Q: What are the purposes of Workmen's Compensation?

A: Workmen's Compensation helps to prevent injuries or occupational diseases to workers.

In the event injuries occur, Workmen's Compensation helps with rehabilitation and restoration of vocational opportunities.

Workmen's Compensation helps to relieve society of the burden of supporting children left without support by the death of wage-earners.

Q: Who is covered by Workmen's Compensation?

A: Every private employer with five or more employees in regular employment is covered by the Workmen's Compensation Act. The employer is covered even if the number of employees temporarily falls below the minimum of five employees.

A contractor is responsible for the employees of his subcontractor, unless the subcontractor has benefit payments for his employees.

The state, its agencies and subdivisions, non-profit charitable and fraternal, cultural and religious associations are exempt from paying Workmen's Compensation insurance, but they may elect to do so.

The employer bears the full cost of the workmen's compensation insurance. It is a misdemeanor for an employer to deduct the cost of workmen's compensation insurance from the pay of an employee.

Q: What are some examples of disabilities covered?

A: Any injury that arises where there is a direct causal connection between the work and the injury is covered by workmen's compensation.

A pre-existing disease or handicap that is aggravated, accelerated, contributed to or precipitated by an employee's work to cause disability is also covered.

An injury caused by an Act of God, such as a tornado or hurricane, can be compensable if the employee's work required him to be where he was injured.

Mental or emotional stress on the job may be compensable.

In some cases, an injury to an employee resulting from 'horseplay' can be covered by workmen's compensation since the work brought the employees together.

Q: What are the minimum requirements for marriage in Mississippi?

A: Before a marriage license can be issued the male must prove he is at least 17-years-old and the female must prove she is at least 15-years-old.

But if a reason can be given to a judge of any Chancery, Circuit or County Court that a couple must be married, the age requirement may be waived.

Also if the parents give their consent, an underage couple may be married. Application for a marriage license must be in writing and be on file three days before the couple receives a license.

Thirty days before applying for the license, the couple must receive a medical certificate showing them to be free of syphilis.

Proof of age is required by showing a birth certificate, baptismal record, armed service discharge or other official document.

If either person appears to be under the age of 21, and is without parental consent, the clerk will notify the mother, father, guardian or next of kin.

Q: Is there common law marriage in Mississippi?

A: No. Common law marriage in Mississippi was abolished in 1956. A Mississippi common law marriage is valid if it was consummated before 1956.

If a couple entered into a common law marriage in another state where it was valid, then it is considered to be valid in Mississippi. Children of a common law marriage after 1956 were illegitimate.

Q: If married in another state, would the marriage be valid in Mississippi?

A: A marriage legally entered into is equally valid in Mississippi. Marriage in another country, if abiding by all natural laws, is valid.

But Mississippi will not recognize marriage between brother and sister or between father and daughter even if another state or country does.

When Mississippians attempt to evade this statute by marrying elsewhere, the marriage is considered to be void.

State troopers to ticket expired tags, inspection stickers and drivers licenses

Col. Donald Butler has ordered a crackdown by state troopers on motorists who drive vehicles with improper or expired license plates, expired decals or expired inspection stickers.

He said that some vehicles in Mississippi still display the license plate commonly referred to as the "Magnolia" tag.

"Any Mississippi license plate that bears the outline of a green Magnolia in its center has expired," the chief said.

He said that decals showing any month of 1982 have expired and should be replaced as soon as possible.

"All vehicles should bear the new license plate with blue letters and numbers on a white background with the word 'Mississippi' printed with expanded center letters," Butler added.

He said some automobiles have been found bearing a green decal. "This decal is issued exclusively for boat trailers, house trailers and other privately owned trailers," Butler said. "It is not for automobiles."

He said persons driving without a valid driver license or with an expired license, or whose automobile has an expired license plate, decal or inspection sticker will be ticketed if they are stopped by a state trooper. State law allows fines of up to $1,000 for some of these violations.

Butler said new residents to Mississippi have 30 days from the time they establish residency to purchase a license plate and decal.

There is a 60-day period that a driver license issued from another state is honored under Mississippi law. An inspection sticker issued by another state is valid in Mississippi until it expires.

There are approximately 1.6 million registered vehicles in Mississippi with license plate decals that expire monthly. More decals expire in October and November than in other months.

License plates and decals are purchased from the tax collector's office in each county seat.

Anyone whose driver license number ends in an even digit, new residents to Mississippi and first time applicants must visit one of the 101 driver license examining stations throughout the state to obtain a color-photo license.

Holders of a license with a number that ends in an odd digit must renew the license by mail with the Department of Public Safety in Jackson.

There are 1,216 licensed motor vehicle inspection stations in Mississippi whose mechanics check vehicles for brake, tail and head lights; steering alignment; reasonably new tires; operational windshield wipers, horn; uninterrupted windshield visibility; complete exhaust system and turn signal indicators.

Get Out and Get Under... Safely

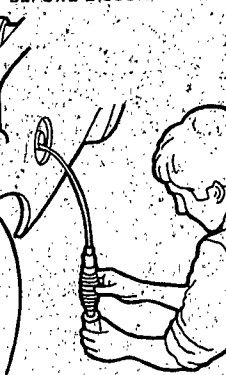

USE A SIPHON... NOT YOUR MOUTH TO DRAIN GAS.

Years ago, there was a popular song whose refrain went "get out and get under... to fix that automobile." It's still something you have to do, but unfortunately, unless you do it right, a small repair can turn into a major headache.

Paul Weisler, Mechanix Illustrated's auto-service expert, makes these suggestions to home mechanics: Have the right tools, and be sure they are of good quality. Poor tools, or the wrong ones, can often cause injury to both yourself and the auto. Don't use metric tools on American-dimension parts or vice-versa.

When disconnecting a fuel line, stuff a towel under the fitting to catch fuel spillage. Then plug the line to stop the fuel flow.

Keep a fire extinguisher handy, no matter what job you're doing or how safe you think it is.

Always have adequate lighting, and if you use a portable bulb, it should have a metal safety cage around it.

If you have to drain gas from the tank, use a siphon, not your mouth. A good gulp of gasoline can kill you.

If you have to use a bench grinder, use gloves to handle hot parts, and always wear safety goggles, even if the grinder itself has a guard.

COOKING WITH HONEY

Margaret Haase sent us some tips she's learned during a year of sweetening and cooking exclusively with honey. Her experiences may help you get started on your own bee-sweetening venture.

Because honey-flavored baked goods brown faster, Margaret has learned to keep her modified breads and muffins from overbrowning before they're cooked through by baking them a little longer at lower temperatures. When she's converting a new sugar recipe to honey for the first time, she automatically knocks 25°F off the oven setting.

The same consideration applies to other cooking methods as well as to baking. All dishes made with honey, she says, seem to stick a little sooner or burn a little faster, so she stirs more often and frequently turns down the flame.

Another point to remember is that honey adds liquid to a recipe; about three tablespoons of extra fluid per cup of sweetener or one-quarter cup per pound. Even when you allow for that fact, your baked goods will tend to be moister than those made with sugar... but the longer, slower baking—which prevents burning—also helps keep the texture moist rather than wet.

Finally, honey is slightly acid... so Margaret adds a little soda (usually one-eighth to one-fourth teaspoonful per cup of sweetening) to most batters and doughs. This addition is unnecessary with yeast breads though, because the bread leavening thrives in the mildly acid environment.

This cook has found that light honey is easier to substitute for sugar than dark because it's more predictable in flavor and less likely to overwhelm other tastes. (The dark varieties, on the other hand, have a robust quality that's often a welcome change.)

At any rate, the sugar in a recipe can generally be replaced with an equal weight of light honey... a rule that works out to about two-thirds of a cup of liquid sweetener to one cup of dry. And, of course, you must remember to deduct about three tablespoons of other liquid for each cup of honey you use.

Using honey to flavor cold beverages caused a minor problem for the Haase household. The golden liquid, introduced into a chilled drink, immediately stiffens. They found that they could overcome this difficulty by mixing one part of water—at room temperature or a little warmer—with three parts of sweetener. Now a bottle of "honey syrup" appears on the table for use with cold foods, or in place of other syrups for pancakes, ice cream, etc. One drawback: The mixture doesn't keep well and will start to ferment in about a week if refrigerated.

The Haases have put up a lot of jams and jellies with honey... and for all their fruit-makings they've used essentially the same recipe. Prepare and measure the fruit or juice. If you make batches about the size recommended by the Sure-Jell people (see the directions sheet inside the package), you'll have good results with a pound-for-pound substitution of honey for the sugar the instructions call for. Then use the amount of juice specified per lot, less one-quarter cup of liquid for each pound of honey. With really strong wild fruit you may want more sweetening, in which case you should use proportionately less fluid.

Mix the honey, fruit, and Sure-Jell in a deep pan. (The jelly mixture will bubble up to about double its original volume, so be forewarned.) Bring these ingredients to a full rolling boil and continue this hard boil until the combination passes the "jelly test" — usually 15 minutes or so.

Ladle the sweet stuff into hot sterilized jars and seal them. If you're fuzzy about looks, you can skim the liquid before jarring it.

ETV Brief

NFL HISTORY
"Frontline," a weekly series of news documentaries anchored by NBC News correspondent Jessica Savitch, can be seen at 9 p.m., Fridays, beginning Jan. 21, on the Mississippi ETV Network.

The first program of the series, "An Unauthorized History of the NFL," proves that there are some hand-offs in the National Football League that the public never gets to see.

The program investigates links between some league teams and players and the nation's multi-billion-dollar gambling industry. The film shows the link between gambling and organized crime and how professional football fits into this picture.

Legal sports betting in Las Vegas alone generates $370 million annually, $280 million of that from bets on football. Probably no one knows the full scope of illegal gambling, but it is believed that a quarter of a billion dollars is bet on the Super Bowl alone.

The film explores allegations of connections between the crime world and several present team owners who were heavy sports betters before they became owners.

Producer William Cran and his team of journalists have uncovered, in Cran's words, "A consistent pattern of scandals in which players and owners are being given a mere slap on the wrist when found to be associating with organized crime people."

High-Yield Wheat

New Option In The South

Wheat, a crop normally associated with the spacious skies and windy western plains, may soon be popping up as a double crop opportunity in the South.

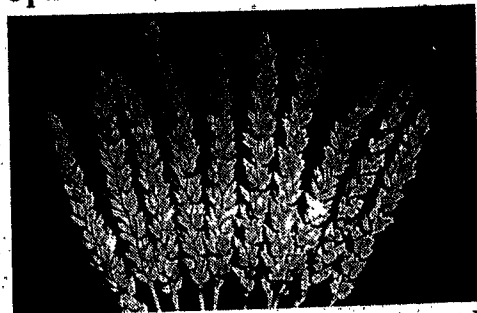

Thanks to research and development of the University of Missouri-Columbia, Pike wheat, a new variety of soft red winter wheat, has successfully passed five years of trials and is now being made accessible to Southern farmers.

"Beginning this summer, Pike wheat will be made available to growers in the South as a competitive winter wheat seed," said Wynard Aslin, executive secretary of the Missouri Seed Improvement Association. "We feel Pike is now on the level where it can successfully complement soybeans as a winter crop in the South."

The elements making Pike an option in the South as well as the Midwest are hardiness, resistance to disease and high yield per acre.

Farmers in Missouri and Illinois, two corn belt states, recently harvested their second crop of Pike with results similar to those conducted by the University of Missouri's College of Agriculture from 1979 to 1981.

"They all reported consistently higher per-acre yields with Pike than with other similar winter wheat varieties. Our University tests showed Pike averaging 61.1 bushels per acre and a June harvest date, that type of return per acre makes the crop more lucrative to the farmers in the South," Aslin said.

While most wheat varieties grow only three grains around each spike, Pike wheat has been setting four to five grains. This results in a fuller and more productive grain head for the soft red winter wheat variety. Pike has scored high on productivity, making it an attractive double crop alternative in the Midwest and South.

While farming conditions are not completely the same in Missouri and Illinois as they are in Mississippi, Kentucky or Virginia, Aslin feels the experiences of Midwest farming operations will be good indicators for Southern growers.

"The past two winters in our area have been more like those of the South—with wet planting and wet harvesting seasons. While we've had cold periods they have not been as severe as normal. Pike out-produced other varieties from four to 15 bushels per acre, on these Midwest properties, had the best resistance to disease and was by far the best in terms of winter hardiness," Aslin said.

The Missouri and Illinois farmers reporting in the tests grew Pike under similar conditions against Hart, Arthur T. McNair, NAPP and Coker.

Pike wheat was developed in 1971 by Dr. Dale Sechler of the University of Missouri's agronomy department. It began with the crossing of Stoddard with a short-strawed Yugoslavian variety and a domestic dwarf variety. It is named after the Missouri County in which it had its start.

Pike wheat is marketed exclusively by the Missouri and Illinois Pike Wheat Growers Association. Member growers purchase foundation seed from the University of Missouri and sell their harvest as certified wheat seed under the Pike name. Pike is a protected variety under the Plant Variety Protection Act and cannot be sold by variety name except as a class of certified seed.

Scanlan to embellish library for Carnival

By JOE PILET
Coordinator - Friends of the Hancock County Library System

Celebration of the Mardi Gras season is to be highlighted at the Main Branch of the Hancock County Library System throughout the entire month of February. Ed Scanlan, decoration specialist, will deck the interior of the building with purple, green and gold masks which are emblematic of Mardi Gras.

At the entrance he will place a papier mache float prop, the additional float props will be on exhibit in the Crawford Memorial Room.

The display case will feature krewes favors, and a model float, scaled one inch to the foot and measuring approximately 24 inches long, 14 inches high and 8 inches deep. Carnival costumes and float sketches of former years will be displayed.

Scanlan, well known for float designs and production, has been the master-mind of parade floats for the Krewe of Nereids, Triton, Okeanos, Zeus, as well as the Gulf Coast Carnival Association.

He said: "I average 8 to 10 carnival balls a year. My work is to build and paint scenery and props, design and execute stage sets, draft floor plans, supervise the stage crew and protocol directions."

Scanlan, who was born in New Orleans, moved to Waveland in 1979 and became an enthusiastic Gulf Coast booster. He recently served on the technical staff of the Waveland Players, directing art, designing costumes and doing expertise makeup for members.

His specialty is art direction, set design and stage management.

During the Miss USA Pageant, Scanlan built and painted scenery, props, etc. and 1981 designed and executed stage sets for Miss WXGR Radio Beauty Pageant.

He said: "I average 8 to 10 carnival balls a year. My work is to build and paint scenery and props, design and execute stage sets, draft floor plans, supervise the stage crew and protocol directions."

MISSISSIPPI HUMORIST RECALLED

Humor has been called the harmony of the heart, among other things, but wise men often utilize humor to cleanse the air of discord so that refreshing breezes bearing goodwill may play across men's souls.

Mississippi Congressman Jamie Whitten earlier this month rose to the House floor and employed both gratitude and humor to cinch down a little piece of agricultural support when the time was ripe.

Actually the timing was beyond the ripe stage perhaps, because his colleagues already had thrown their support to the funding of continued services of the Private John Allen Fish Hatchery at Tupelo.

But the wily congressman understood human relations, if not political advantage, sufficiently well to add icing to his cake.

After being recognized to speak on the floor, Whitten thanked the chairman of the responsible subcommittee and each member thereof for providing funds for the Tupelo fish hatchery located in his district.

Then, for the edification of each member of the changing guard he bathed their position in rather remarkable humor out of the last century, directly from the fish hatchery's namesake "Private John Allen."

Whitten recalled that "Private John" was the familiar nickname of John Mills Allen (1846-1917) of Tupelo who served throughout the Civil War as a private in the Confederate Army and who later became a successful lawyer.

In 1884 Allen and a former Confederate general named Tucker both sought the Democratic nomination for a seat in Congress that had been occupied since 1877 by Col. Henry Lowndes Muldrow.

On one occasion, Whitten related, both of the candidates spoke from the same platform with General Tucker concluding his appeal to voters in words, substantially as follows:

"Twenty years ago last night, my fellow citizens, after a hard fought battle on yonder hill, I bivouacked under yonder clump of trees. Those of you who remember, as I do, the time that tried men's souls, will not, I trust, forget your humble servant on election day."

When Private John Allen rose for his final petition to the people, he acknowledged the General's pitch for votes as follows:

"What General Tucker says to you about having bivouacked in yonder clump of trees on that night is true. It is also true that I was vidette picket and stood guard over him while he slept. Now then, fellow citizens, all of you who were generals and had privates to stand guard over you while you slept, vote for General Tucker, and all of you who were privates and stood guard over the generals while they slept, vote for Private John Allen!"

W-D BRAND U. S. CHOICE BEEF

If your mother always told you to get the best quality for your money, she's right... The Beef People at WINN-DIXIE feel the same way. They believe in giving you only U.S. Choice... which means beef that is tender, but not soft... beef with perfect flavor that comes only from grain-fed cattle.

W-D Brand U.S. Choice Beef is deep in color... well marbled... and more important to your budget, it is trimmed of excess bone and fat before it's weighed, giving you more meat you can eat... at the best possible prices.

LAGNIAPPE OF THE MONTH!!

If you listed all the features you'd like in your next home and then looked this lovely 3 bedroom, 3 bath waterfront, brick and frame over, you'd have some extras that you could call lagniappe!! First! Either Williams swimming pool in the spacious landscaped yard with moss laden oaks and pines, boat house and slip. When you enter this breath taking combination Great room with fireplace and formal dining, you know this is not an ordinary home!! The big Master bedroom, with it's large walk-in dressing room and 2 compartment bath with luxurious carpet is on a second step-up level, as in the kitchen and breakfast area holding all the built-ins you can dream of, highlighted lots of beautiful custom made blonde cabinets. The children's wing on the lower level (with second heat pump) has 2 large bedrooms (each with it's own bath). Thick pile carpets, and walk-in closets and utility room with lots of features. I forgot to mention, delightful hidden built-in desk behind the shutter doors in the front entry, and also attached double carport and storage. Now here's the Lagniappe; all of this for $77,500, with existing assumable loan. Make appointment to look this over today and count the features I failed to mention.
